

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 7.

A CANDIDATE FOR THE JURY BOX.—"Are you a citizen of Wyandotte county?" asked the Hon. Bailey Waggoner of an old colored man who hobbled into the jury box with the aid of a long hickory cane.

"Is, sah," replied the aged darkey.

"How long have you been such?"

"I donno, sah."

"Have you formed or expressed an opinion about the case?"

"Well, I donno. I have resuted de matter considerable, an' when my mind was fully rectified I went down to de track. I met de Sheriff an' he told me to reappear an I left."

"Have you formed an opinion that the train was wrecked by accident or design?"

"Yes, sah; I think it was wrecked by 'zign."

"Are you opposed to capital punishment?"

"No, sah."

"Do you know what capital punishment is?"

"No, sah."

"Have you any conscientious scruples?"

"No, I have not."

"Do you think that a man should be hanged for murder?"

"Yes, sah."

"If the evidence in the case should show the defendant to be guilty of murder, would you hesitate to find a verdict of guilty because the penalty might be death?"

"Yes, sah, I would."

"In the trial of the case would you be controlled by the evidence or by what you have heard?"

"I would, to de best of my ability."

"Would the evidence control you in arriving at a verdict?"

"Not if I could help it."

"Do you know what an oath is?"

"I does not."

"In the trial of the case would you feel yourself bound by your oath?"

"I has not 'flected on that subject, sah."

He was excused.—Kansas City Times.

Over-Worked Women.

For "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated school teachers, milliners, seamstresses, housekeepers, and over-worked women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best of all restorative tonics. It is not a "cure-all," but admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most potent specific for all those Chronic Weaknesses and Diseases peculiar to women. It is a powerful general as well as uterine, tonic and invigorant, and imparts vigor and strength to the whole system. It promptly cures weakness of stomach, indigestion, bloating, back, nervous prostration, debility and sleeplessness, in either sex. Favorite Prescription is sold by druggists under our positive guarantee. See wrapper around bottle. Price $1.00 a bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

A large treatise on Diseases of Women, profusely illustrated with colored plates and numerous wood-cuts, sent for ten cents in stamps.

Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
